

Volkswagen

Everyone has a different personality. And so does every Volkswagen.

Passat, Jetta, Golf and the Golf Cabrio. The fact is, we

PASSAT

believe a car should be an extension of its driver's personality. Not just in the way it looks, but in the way it performs. And

JETTA

that's something you'll experience whenever you drive down the road. Heck, even roads have While every Volkswagen has its own personality, they all have one thing in common: German engineering. Like the Motronic®

PASSAT GLX

What is it about the Passat that makes it so distinctive, so advanced, so Volkswagen? The first place to look for an answer

THE PASSAT GLX IS POWERED BY A 175-HORSEPOWER VR6 ENGINE is under the hood. Because appropriately enough, there is no better example of German engineering than the engine – on the GLX, a 2.8-liter, than Motronic engine management and fuel injection;

it's the sound of an eight-speaker stereo with optional
