It's a Volkswagen.

The Fox. It's stylish. It's well built. It's affordable. Oh, and it's a Volkswagen. In fact, some people say those are all the reasons you need to buy one. But we'd like to think there are a few more than that. It may be the smallest car in our range, but the Fox has everything anyone could want in a car. And with prices starting from £6,590 RRP*, everyone can afford one.

* Manufacturer's recommended 'On the road' retail price.

Looking good has never cost so little.

Being small doesn't mean you can't make a big impression. And with its dynamic body lines, capturing the gaze of curious onlookers is inevitable. Even the contoured clear cover of the headlights and indicators demand attention. While a wide range of exterior body colours gives you the chance to enhance its compact, sporty looks even more. And of course, there's always the option to style your Fox exactly the way you want it by adding alloy wheels, a rear roof spoiler, or one of the many options or accessory packs available.

- 01 Model shown is Urban Fox with optional 14" 'Parana' alloy wheels and front fog lights.
- 02 The door mirrors and bumpers are body-coloured to complement your chosen colour on Urban Fox models.

- 03 An electric glass sunroof is available as an optional extra.
- 04 Halogen headlights with integrated indicators are elegantly styled with a contoured clear cover.

More features doesn't have to mean more money.

The Fox may be a car for everyone, but there are still two models to choose from – the Fox and Urban Fox. Simply choose the one that suits you best.

If you're looking for a practical and affordable small car to drive, then you can't go wrong with the Fox. There's also green tinted glass, range adjustable halogen clear headlights, one-touch indicators, speed-sensitive power-assisted steering and a radio/CD player with four speakers. Not to mention vanity mirrors and an electronic engine immobiliser all fitted as standard.

If you're in need of a few more luxuries, the Urban Fox comes with all we've mentioned plus remote central locking, sliding rear bench seat with 50:50 split folding backrest, front electric windows, body-coloured bumpers and door mirrors, 'easy entry' front seats and manual rear vent windows.

Big on fun, big on safety.

It may be small, but the Fox is very big on safety – like every Volkswagen. The Fox is built around a rigid, galvanised body that's laser welded to ensure all of the panels sit tightly together. The end result is a body so strong, it can absorb impact energy and thereby protect the driver and passengers within a protective inner cell – just in case. These features have resulted in the Fox achieving four stars in the Euro NCAP ratings.

Small passengers are also well protected with innovative Isofix child seat preparation in the rear, allowing approved child seats to be secured directly to the Fox's chassis for maximum safety. Installing and removing them is so simple it is, quite literally, child's play.

It goes without saying that the Fox is also fitted with both driver's and front passenger's airbags as standard, as are three-point seat belts with height adjustment in the front and front and rear head restraints. If you do need to brake suddenly, the Anti-lock Braking System (ABS) will prevent the wheels from locking, helping you to keep control of the car.

And because you can never be too careful, side airbags and front fog lights are available as an option, along with the Electronic Stabilisation Programme (ESP) which reacts to critical situations in milliseconds to adjust the engine's power and braking.

01 The optional alarm with interior protection has a monitor that detects movement in the car and, if appropriate, triggers the alarm.

02 Airbags for the driver and front passenger are fitted as standard.

03 Side airbags for the driver and front passenger are available as an optional extra.

04 A fully adjustable steering column assures the most comfortable driving position.

05 The Anti-lock Braking System (ABS) prevents wheels from locking when braking suddenly and is fitted as standard.

06 The optional Electronic Stabilisation Programme (ESP) reacts to critical situations within milliseconds.

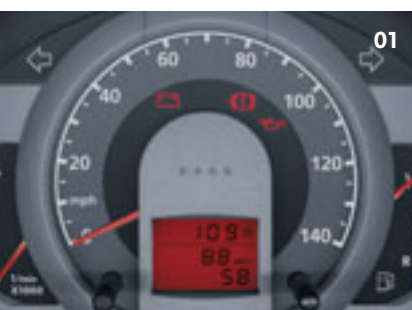

Interior shown features optional 'Climatic' semi-automatic air conditioning, Electronic Stabilisation Programme (ESP) and front fog lights.

No room for excuses.

Lack of space is certainly no reason not to buy a Fox. In fact, once you're inside you'll be amazed how big our small car actually is. A clever use of space and ergonomic design means the interior is both practical and stylish, providing plenty of room for both driver and passengers. Thoughtful extra touches such as an abundance of storage compartments, front cup holders, storage nets on the back of the front seats and a height-adjustable driver's seat with a handy drawer beneath, all contribute to a feeling of spaciousness and comfort.

It's more of the same in the back with the Urban Fox, where you'll find the rear seat backrest splits 50:50 if you need to carry extra luggage. Also, the rear bench seat adjusts lengthways so you can transport bulkier items, or folds up completely to give you a maximum boot space of 1,016 litres*. Hardly a small amount by anyone's standard.

01 The dashboard is both well arranged and clearly illuminated.

02 A handy drawer beneath the driver's seat means everything is easily within reach.

03 Optional 'Climatic' semi-automatic air conditioning provides year round comfort.

04 Total flexibility: rear seats split symmetrically for extra luggage space, standard on Urban Fox...

05 ...adjust lengthways to accommodate bulky items or fold up completely to optimise the boot space, achieving a maximum volume of 1,016 cubic litres*.

Solutions for the private motorist

With Solutions, the Personal Contract Plan from Volkswagen Finance, you could choose an agreement period between 18 and 42 months, pay a low deposit and defer a proportion of the vehicle's value until the end of your agreement – all of which could allow you to drive the Fox you really want for the motoring budget you have in mind.

Protect your experience

In addition, you could benefit from one of our optional insurance products, designed to safeguard either your Fox or your payments.

Payment Protection

This could help you to make your payments in the event of accidental death, critical illness, disability or unemployment.

GAP Insurance (shortfall protection)

This could protect you against any shortfall left by your motor insurance in the event of your Fox being stolen or written off in an accident.

Model shown is Urban Fox with optional 14" 'Parana' alloy wheels and Sunshine paint.

How Solutions could work for you

- Your Fox has an agreed minimum future value – the proportion of the vehicle's cost that is deferred to the end of the agreement
- You can choose an agreement period between 18 and 42 months
- Drive a new car more often thanks to shorter replacement cycles
- Maintain your lifestyle by driving the latest Fox
- Afford a new car or a higher specification model
- Deferring the payment on a proportion of your vehicle's value means that your monthly payments could be reduced to suit your budget
- Easy entry – as little as the equivalent of one monthly payment required as a deposit
- Available for new and used Volkswagen models
- Known cash flow – fixed interest rate and payment
- Reduced term of funding and ability to defer your decision to purchase until the end of your agreement
- Option to include a Fixed-cost Maintenance Plan

At the end of the agreement, you have three choices:

1. Either pay the outstanding amount, including the option-to-purchase fee, and own your car; or
2. Return it to us and walk away (subject to terms and conditions); or
3. Part-exchange it and begin another Solutions agreement for a new Volkswagen.

To see how Solutions could work for you, contact your local Volkswagen retailer.

All that could get in the way of you and a Fox.

You can probably already see yourself in a Fox. After all, it couldn't be easier to own one with the range of finance packages to help you budget and a clear choice of engines, trim levels and accessories. The only thing that could stop you driving one is choosing the colour and upholstery. There are eight exterior colours available, and three different cloths for the seats, so finding the right combination may take some time.

There's nothing stopping you buying a Fox. But there are two engines to get you moving.

The outside isn't the only thing that's compact about the Fox. For the sake of simplicity, we've also purposely kept the number of engines available small. There are just two for you to choose from – a 1.2 litre and a 1.4 litre petrol engine. Both deliver dynamic performance, as well as exceptional fuel consumption. Around town, for instance, the 1.2 litre develops 55 PS but still achieves 35.8 mpg*. And out on the open road, the larger 1.4 litre 16-valve engine, which generates an impressive 75 PS, manages 50.4 mpg*. And it won't cost the earth to insure your Fox – with a Group 1 rating for the 1.2 litre engine and a Group 2 for the 1.4 litre.

But while the Fox may be small on your outgoings, it's big on fun. The five speed manual gearbox fitted to both units, along with the power-assisted steering fitted as standard, makes the Fox easy to drive in town or on the move. The rigid body shell also gives the Fox excellent road-holding and handling abilities.

* Please see Engines section for fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions figures.

01 Both petrol engines are available with a five speed manual gearbox.

Technical specification notes.

- The maximum power output figures are quoted in PS (or Pferdestärke, which is the metric equivalent of horsepower). To convert from metric to imperial horsepower, divide the PS figure by 1.0139.
- Figures are calculated in accordance with manufacturer's criteria. Vehicle unladen weight ranges with 90% tank capacity without driver (75 kg). The individual unladen weight depends on the specification of the vehicle, this then reduces the possible payload accordingly.
- With increasing altitude the engine performance diminishes. From 1,000 m above sea level and for every 1,000 m thereafter 10% of the vehicle/trailer weight (trailer weight + gross vehicle weight) must be deducted.
- Thanks to the knock control, unleaded four star (at least 95 RON) can be used instead of Super plus unleaded.
- Official fuel consumption according to EU Directive 99/94. The consumption calculation according to 1999/100/EC is based on the actual unladen weight of the vehicle. Additional specifications can lead to a higher weight class and hence to consumption figures of this higher weight class. The driving style, road and traffic conditions, environmental influences and vehicle condition can in practice lead to consumption figures, which may differ from those calculated with this standard.
- The weight of a vehicle will influence the level of CO₂ emission it produces; as a result, vehicles with higher levels of specification and factory-fitted options may emit higher levels of CO₂. The CO₂ figure quoted for each vehicle is the maximum possible. The unladen weight of the vehicle is calculated by range at the time of manufacture and the maximum possible CO₂ emission for that weight range is applied according to the Council Directive 80/1268EEC as amended by Commission Directive 1999/100/EC on the approximation of the laws of the member states relating to the carbon dioxide emissions and the fuel consumption of motor vehicles.

CO₂ Emission.

The weight of a vehicle will influence the level of CO₂ emission it produces; as a result, vehicles with higher levels of specification and factory-fitted options may emit higher levels of CO₂.

The CO₂ figure quoted for each vehicle is the maximum possible. The unladen weight of the vehicle is calculated by range at the time of manufacture and the maximum possible CO₂ emission for that weight range is applied according to the Council Directive 80/1268EEC as amended by Commission Directive 1999/100/EC on the approximation of the laws of the member states relating to the carbon dioxide emissions and the fuel consumption of motor vehicles.
