CERATO

Something's going on at Kia

The new face of Kia

The all-new Cerato is the first new look Kia featuring the eye-catching style of design guru Peter Schreyer. You may be familiar with his work, including the Audi TT and VW Beetle. According to Schreyer, "Design gives a soul to the product and reaches the hearts of the people." As Chief of Design, Schreyer has developed a distinctly new, more contemporary look that is unlike anything you have ever seen from Kia.

Design is the key to Kia's new philosophy. "Kia is a brand underpinned by quality and reliability. Now on top of that comes this emotional element of distinctive design," Schreyer said. And the all-new Cerato is, without a doubt, driven by design.

Stylish appearance is far more than skin deep in the all-new Cerato. At first glance, the all-new Cerato makes a sporty statement of intent. Its sleek profile, perfectly balanced proportions and aerodynamically sculptured rear underlines the car's dynamic performance. The signature Kia trademark grille drives home its forward-looking styling. While the 17-inch alloy wheels give the all-new Cerato an unmistakable sense of motion – even when stationary.

▲ 17-inch, light-weight alloys shod with 215/45 tyres The wide, low rolling resistance, silica tyres optimise driver feel, cornering force for grip, steering stability and breathtaking looks. ▼ Kia's new family look grille The all-new Cerato has adopted 'Schreyer Line' styling, with the grille design representing the fierce tiger's roar which will rollout across future Kia models. ▼ Side indicator outside mirror The outside mirrors feature embedded side indicators to give other road users a clear indication of your intention to turn.

Comfort zone

Step into the all-new Cerato's contemporary and powerfully styled cabin. The well thought-through layout creates space and form, while the finish of the fascia and trim is a sophisticated arena for the latest technology. The interior of your all-new Cerato offers a level of comfort that will relax; generous legroom, headroom and shoulder room gives you space to think and explore; and the colour that nurtures and inspires a positive mood. Exercise your right to the good life.

4 Supervision cluster, Message centre, Audio remote control* and Cruise control* The all-new Cerato features the Kia trio-gauge cluster with a message centre that prompts important data, such as when a door is open, average speed, fuel consumption; trip data, coolant temperature and rear parking obstructions: Steering wheel mounted controls put the audio system and cruise control settings at your fingertips. Sporty user-friendly door control A suite of controls are located within the door armrest to give you convenient control of power windows, central locking and side mirrors. Full auto climate control The interior climate can be automatically controlled and a mood ring outlines the air-conditioning dial-knob to give an aura of sophistication. VISB, AUX and iPod⁺ connections The all-new Cerato's audio system enables you to take your media with you. It has CD, iPod and MP3 compatibility, and a USB port for complete audio entertainment.

⁺iPod connection requires optional cable. *SLi model only.

Next generation

At the heart of the all-new Cerato resides a contemporary feel that is enhanced by the fully integrated audio system and the Kia trio-gauge cluster with message centre. Your audio experience will be second to none, with an in-dash system including CD and MP3 playback, AUX, USB and iPod[®] connections for compatible devices, all output with clarity through the 6-speaker setup. While steering wheel mounted controls* eliminate the need to take a hand off the wheel.

A fast-paced life deserves a fast-paced car. The all-new Kia Cerato is equipped with everything you need for a demanding life on-the-go. With its fashion-forward styling, feature-rich amenities, uncompromising safety and a next-generation engine, the all-new Cerato is designed to keep up with you.

Part rocket, part science

Kia has created not just a vehicle to drive, but also a vehicle that will inspire a driving passion. Hit the throttle of the 2.0-litre DOHC CVVT (Continuously Variable Valve Timing) petrol engine and you'll appreciate the class-leading 115kW of power its four-cylinder lightweight engine offers. This nextgeneration engine is partnered with a 5-speed manual transmission for optimum driver control, or you can opt for the 4-speed gate-type automatic transmission for a smooth and relaxed drive with manual-style shift capability.

No matter where your destination, with the all-new Cerato's sporty style and next-generation engine, you will always make a spectacular entrance.

Coefficient of drag

The all-new Cerato's low drag coefficient comes from a wedge-shaped profile that improves aerodynamics, which in turn enhances its fuel economy and performance.

4-speed gate-type automatic transmission The optional 4-speed automatic transmission provides silky-smooth gear shifting, with a sporty gate-style gearshift lever that permits manual-style upshifts and downshifts without the need for a clutch. < 5-speed manual transmission Enjoy the hands-on appeal of the Kia 5-speed manual transmission that provides precise shifting at all engine speeds. I Tachometer The feel

Peace of mind around every corner

Before form follows function, function must follow safety. The all-new Cerato has been constructed with impact resistant crumple zones and reinforced doors as a first line of defence. Six airbags provide further passenger protection from front and side impacts. Additional driver control in extreme driving conditions is available from the Anti-lock Brake System

(ABS) with Electronic Brake-force Distribution (EBD), optional Electronic Stability Program (ESP) and Traction Control System (TCS). Add a 5 year unlimited kilometre warranty⁺ and you'll find peace of mind in the most unexpected places.
