Our Wagon family boasts nine attractive reasons for Ford's continuing wagon leadership. The closer you look, the more you will realize that each is a special combination of abilities and virtues. Each offers generous passenger and cargo room that makes it almost two cars in one.

The station wagon as a distinct automobile style reaches its finest expression in the Ford LTD Country Squire, Gran Torino Squire and Pinto with Squire Option. The woodgrain vinyl side and tailgate trim harks back to days of the original Ford "woodies," when the Wagonmaster started it all.

Ford Wagons come in an assortment of sizes and prices. With features and advantages rarely found elsewhere, because Ford Wagons are designed to fully satisfy a wagon fancier. Ford's famous innovation, the 3-Way Magic Doorgate on Fords and Torinos, is a good example. Even large families can be accommodated in the big Fords with optional dual facing rear seats. Or with the optional rear facing third seat in mid-size Gran Torino Squire and Gran Torino Wagons.

For hauling jobs, there's room a'plenty. Sheets of 4' x 8' plywood can be moved flat in Ford models with standard trim and in any Torino Wagon. A capacity of 94.6 cu. ft. is yours in all Ford Wagons. Torinos have 84.8 cu. ft. And there's lockable underfloor storage space in Ford and Torino models. Great for extra luggage and valuables.

Pinto . . . an established value in small economy wagons; seats four in comfort. With the rear seat folded down, you can load almost six unobstructed feet of carrying length.

Wagonmaster offerings find favor with the hobbyist, the sportsman and traveling families. In fact, with anyone whose life style calls for versatility and adaptability. For a workday vehicle that can step out in high fashion when called on in the evening. And for a wagon that has the exceptional quiet of quality design and construction. Quality that is reflected, too, in a smooth, steady, solid ride.

Among many notable benefits common to the Ford Family of Wagons are the Ford Motor Company Lifeguard Design Safety Features, detailed on page 24. These include the new Front Outboard Retractable Lap/Shoulder Belts. The 1974 Impact Absorbing Front and Rear Bumper Systems that will withstand 5 mph barrier impact, according to the 1974 Canadian Motor Vehicle requirements.

Brakes are self-adjusting on all Fords. All wagons have front disc brakes—power on Ford and Torino. Aluminized mufflers, zinc-coated underbody parts and a six-step paint process of primers and Diamond Lustre Enamel keep Ford Wagons looking new longer. Maintenance costs are further reduced because all 1974 Ford, Torino and Pinto Wagons call for extended periods of operation between major chassis lubrications, oil changes, and oil filter changes. Details are contained within the Owner's Manual.

As you would expect, many options are available for maximum convenience and comfort—plus a choice of appearance-enhancing items. A complete listing is in the Optional Section for each wagon line.

Ford LTD Station Wagons

You can judge all wagons by the Country Squire

LTD Country Squire, Green Glow (Code 4T) with Green vinyl roof.

If you could design the ideal station wagon it would very well come out a Ford LTD . . . probably a Country Squire. The popular leader of the '74 Ford line in 6-passenger or optional 8-passenger versions incorporates the appearance, performance and appointments to make it a standard for measurement.

The power team: a potent 400 CID 2V V-8 with new Solid State Ignition and 3-speed SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic transmission. Power steering, power front disc brakes are standard. So are Steel-Belted Radial Ply Tires.

No missing the woodgrain vinyl trim on sides and doorgate that distinguish the Country Squire. Or you may prefer the high-style LTD Wagon without woodgrain paneling. Note Ford's original 3-Way Magic Doorgate that opens like a door with the power-operated window up or down and also will swing down like a tailgate for cargo loading and added loadspace. Smart wheel covers, too, and a new hood ornament.

Note: A list of Ford Wagon Notable Standard Features appears on pages 8-9. Other items shown are optional. Ford Wagon options are listed on pages 10-11.

Interiors are finished in leather-like all vinyl. Beautiful, durable, practical. Simulated wood-tone accents highlight door panels, steering wheel and instrument panel. Underfoot, color-keyed loop pile nylon carpeting. Other Country Squire niceties: electric clock, inside hood release, rear cargo light, spare tire extractor, and light for the spacious glove compartment.

Conversion from passenger use to load carrying (or the reverse) is accomplished in seconds. (Just check a competitive make to learn the difference.) Under floor there is a generous 9.1 cu. ft. of lockable stowage . . . 5.4 cu. ft. when equipped with optional dual facing seats.

If you want more luxury, consider the new Squire Luxury Group optional interior shown and described on page 6. A complete list of options is on pages 10 and 11. Dimensions and notable standard features are listed for all big Ford Wagons on pages 8 and 9.

Country Squire or LTD . . . no station wagon gives you more—serves you better.

LTD Wagon, Dark Blue Metallic (Code 3G) with Blue vinyl roof.

Squire Brougham Option

Luxurious interior with a split bench seat, center armrests and manual passenger recliner. Shown in Medium Blue DuraWeave Vinyl (Code LB). DuraWeave, also available on bench seat LTD and Squire Wagons, offers the plush look of cloth, exceptional fade-, wear- and soil-resistance . . . plus remarkable cleanability.

The open weave also lets air circulate so you enjoy a cooler, more comfortable ride. Passenger area has cut-pile carpeting.

Auxiliary ash tray is provided in right front armrest. Front door courtesy lights and rear door courtesy light switches complete the package. New Front Outboard Retractable Lap/Shoulder Belts are the Color-Keyed Deluxe version with this option. Shoulder belt inertia reel permits freedom of movement, as shown, when car is stopped or in steady motion. Deceleration activates reel to hold you snugly to seat.

The Country Squire puts new accent on luxury

Squire Luxury Group Enjoy a degree of opulence unexpected in a station wagon. Split bench seats and armrests are covered in Tan super-soft vinyl with a distinctive Saddle accent stripe on seat backs (Code MU). There are color-keyed deluxe seat belts. Passenger seat has manual recliner. Carpeting is 25-oz. cut pile and the cargo area is finished with padded quarter panels and lockable side storage compartment. Also included are the Deluxe

Bumper Group, cigar lighters in rear door armrests, rear door courtesy light switches, tailgate window washer, increased sound insulation and the Convenience Group (detailed on page 11).

Note: See Ford Wagon Notable Standard Features on pages 8-9. Other items shown are optional. Complete Ford Wagon option list is on pages 10-11.

Handsome LTD Country Squire Interior Richly upholstered in vinyl with a leather-like texture that is easy to keep clean. Shown in Medium Green (Code FR). This cutaway view shows the spaciousness you enjoy. The optional Dual Facing Rear Seats expand passenger capacity and are special favorites of children. The optional recreation table is great for games that help pass time on long trips. The optional lockable side storage compartment (which includes a Carpeted Cargo Area) protects valuables.

Cargo Conversion Because a station wagon is essentially a dual purpose vehicle, the Wagonmaster makes sure that conversion from passenger carrying to cargo duty is simple and easy. Controls are conveniently placed and positive in action. Seats can be folded down (or up) in a matter of seconds without the inconvenience or problems often encountered in some other makes. Be sure to check this important feature.

3-Way Magic Doorgate One of the great convenience features developed by the Wagonmaster. With the window up or down you can open it like a door for easy entry and exit for passengers. Or it will swing down like a conventional tailgate for easier cargo loading, for tailgate picnics, or just an additional two feet of floor length when you need it.

Ford Galaxie 500 Country Sedan Ford Custom 500 Ranch Wagon Ford Custom Ranch Wagon

The Galaxie 500 Country Sedan . . . a family sedan that's just a short step away from the LTD and Country Squire. A smart pillared hardtop style and a 3-Way Magic Doorgate that will make it a standout in any company. You'll find the roominess (6-passenger or more with optional dual facing rear seats), comfort and riding qualities you expect in a big Ford. Especially noticeable is the quiet that marks a well-made car and all Fords. Appointments are distinctive and include such fine touches as woodtone applique on the instrument panel and front and rear door trim panels. Note, too, the bright exterior moldings and the integral parking lamps and front side markers. The standard engine is the 351 CID 2V V-8, teamed with SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic, Power Steering and Power Front Disc Brakes.

The Custom 500 Ranch Wagon or Custom Ranch Wagon . . . the economy wagons of the big Ford line that are long on advantages. The sharp good looks of pillared hardtop styling accented by quarter window moldings, integral parking lamps, front side markers and dual separated rear side marker lights. The 3-Way Magic Doorgate is featured. Standard seating for six with optional dual facing rear seats to accommodate more. The interior treatment includes black camera case applique on the instrument panel and woodtone on passenger side. Color-keyed loop pile carpeting, a color-keyed steering wheel and column are added niceties. A 351 CID 2V V-8 and SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic, Power Steering and Power Front Disc Brakes are standard.

Ford Custom 500 Ranch Wagon, Green Glow (Code 4T).

Ford Galaxie 500 Country Sedan, Medium Copper Metallic (Code 5M).

Ranch Wagon Interior. Green (Code BR). Attractive and practical vinyl upholstery. For added comfort, full-length padded armrests and nylon pile carpeting are provided in passenger area.

Spare Tire Extractor. Standard for all big Ford Wagons. Minimum effort raises spare tire and wheel from side well onto the load floor.

Over 9 feet of Load Length. With tailgate down and second seat folded down, it's an easy matter to carry 4' x 8' plywood in standard interiors.

Lockable Below Deck Storage. Keeps articles out of sight. 9.1 cu. ft. of space in 6-passenger models. 5.4 cu. ft. with dual facing rear seats.
